St. James's, September 21.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Juſtice, Aldermen, Capital and Inferior Burgeſſes of the Borough and Town of Taunton, having been tranſmitted by the Mayor of the ſaid Town, to the Earl of Egremont, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Juſtice, Aldermen, Capital and Inferior Burgeſſes of the Borough and Town of Taunton, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's dutiful Subjects, with all Humility and loyal Affection, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the late great and intereſting Event, and to aſſure your Majeſty, that we take our Share in the general Joy with the moſt ardent and grateful Zeal.

Your Majeſty's unwearied Attention to promote the Happineſs of your Subjects, obliged them to form the moſt anxious Wiſhes for your own. Theſe are now providentially anſwered, by the auſpicious Birth of an Air apparent to the Britiſh Empire, and the happy Recovery of the Queen; Events equally eſſential to your Majeſty's true Felicity, and the real and permanent Welfare of your Kingdoms.

From this early Increaſe of your Majeſty's Auguſt Family, what have not your faithful People to hope for? Happy are we in our preſent Enjoyments; but happier ſtill in the pleaſing Hopes of having our Religious and Civil Liberties continued to us, and tranſmitted, in their fulleſt Luſtre, to our Poſterity, through a Race of Princes formed after your bright Example, and Inheritors alike of your Majeſty's Crown and Virtues.

May your Majeſty and the Queen long live, happy in your Off-ſpring, happy in your Subjects; and when the Almighty ſhall call you to a Crown immortal, may the Prince your Son emulate all the Virtues of his Illuſtrious Parents, and govern our Childrens Children, as your Majeſty governs us.

Given under our Common Seal this 14th Day of September, 1762.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the Town and Port of Dover in the County of Kent, having been tranſmitted by Sir Edmund Simpſon, Knt. Doctor of Laws, one of their Repreſentatives

Repreſentatives in Parliament, to the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Grenville, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the Town and Port of Dovor in the County of Kent.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

May the ſame Providence, which hath hitherto ſignally bleſſed your Majeſty with a Train of proſperous and happy Events, preſerve his Royal Highneſs, endue him with every Virtue, and make him a glorious Inſtrument of Happineſs to His Royal Parents, and theſe Kingdoms.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of your County of Salop, beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence, with our moſt humble and ſincere Congratulations, on the ſafe Delivery of the Queen, and the Birth of a Prince.

Deeply affected with a grateful Senſe of the invaluable Bleſſings, which, under God, we owe to your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, we cannot but participate the univerſal Joy, occaſioned by an Event, which, while it adds to the domeſtick Bliſs of the beſt of Sovereigns, opens the moſt pleaſing Expectations to the happieſt of People.

Our Hopes are now confirmed, that the ſingular Felicities enjoyed by the preſent Age, will be continued to Poſterity; as we ſee your Majeſty bleſſed with an Heir apparent to your Crown, at a Time when we may flatter ourſelves his being called to wear it, will be happily, at ſuch a Diſtance, that we may expect to ſee him formed, by your Majeſty's Paternal Care and Pious Example, to every Virtue that can dignify and adorn the private Character, and inſtructed in ſuch Maxims of Government by your publick Conduct, as will render him worthy of the Imperial Throne, which he is born to aſcend.

Happy in the Enjoyment of ſuch Bleſſings, and in the Proſpect of their being handed down to After-Ages, it ſhall always be our earneſt Wiſh, and devout Prayer, that during the long Period of Years, through which, we truſt, Providence will extend your Majeſty's Life, you may continue to poſſeſs the Hearts of your grateful Subjects; and having begun your Reign with Victory and Conqueſt, that you may be ſoon enabled to give full Scope to the generous and benevolent Inclinations of your Royal Heart, by cultivating the Arts of Peace, and diffuſing Happineſs and Liberty through every Part of the Britiſh Empire.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty of the Town of Ludlow in the County of Salop, humbly beg Leave to offer our Congratulations to your Majeſty, upon the Birth of his Royal Highneſs the Prince, and to teſtify our Joy upon ſo happy an Event.

The Succeſſion of your Royal Houſe to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, being the Baſis upon which all our Religious and Civil Rights principally depend, we think the Increaſe of your Royal Family, gives an additional Security to thoſe Rights, and are thankful to God for the ſame.

That your Majeſty's Reign may be long and proſperous, and that his Royal Highneſs, formed by your Majeſty's Example and Precepts, may prove a Bleſſing to your Majeſty, and all your People, are the ardent Wiſhes of us your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

In Teſtimony whereof, we have hereunto affixed our Common Seal, this Third Day of September, in the Year of our Lord, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Sixty-two, and in the Second Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of the Town of Shrewſbury, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Earl of Powis, their Recorder, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeſſes of the Town of Shrewſbury, preſume to offer our humble Congratulations to your Majeſty on an Event ſo auſpicious to theſe Kingdoms, as the Birth of a Prince, the Heir of your Majeſty's Crown and Dignities.

Bound by the Ties of Love and Gratitude, as well as Duty to your Majeſty, and ſharing in the publick Triumphs and Glories of your Reign, we cannot but take a ſenſible Part in every Thing that concerns the private Intereſts of your Royal Houſe, and rejoice in every Acceſſion of domeſtick Happineſs to your Majeſty and your Royal Conſort.

Happy in all the Bleſſings of Government, which we have enjoyed in full Meaſure under the Reign of your Majeſty and your Royal Progenitors, we thank Heaven for the Proſpect opened to us, of delivering down theſe Bleſſings to our Poſterity, under a Prince born of the moſt amiable Parents, and formed by their Care and Example to a juſt Senſe of Government, a Love to his native Country, and a pious Regard to its Laws and Liberties.

May our ardent Prayers for your Majeſty and our gracious Queen be anſwered in a long Life of Health and Happineſs, attended with the ſame Unanimity of Affection in your People at Home, and with the ſame Succeſs that has hitherto crowned your Arms and Councils Abroad.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Portmen, and Capital Burgeſſes of Orford, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Thomas Worſley, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

We muſt leave to others, who are verſed in the Art of Embelliſhing their Sentiments with elegant and copious Expreſſions, to expatiate upon the Permanence of Happineſs that is promiſed to Poſterity, by the pleaſing Proſpect now opened to us, of a Race of Kings lineally deſcended from your Royal Perſon, inheriting your tranſcendent Virtues, and copying your great and amiable Example; they will confirm theſe flattering Expectations, by drawing auſpicious Omens from the memorable Day, on which it has pleaſed Providence to beſtow this precious Gift upon your People; an Æra juſtly conſecrated in our Annals, by the Succeſſion of your Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, to be the Guardians and Preſervers of our Liberties and Conſtitution. We muſt be contented to lay at your Majeſty's Feet the Overflowings of our Joy upon this intereſting Event, in unadorned but honeſt Language; and, whilſt we are conſidering it in a more confined and private Relation, ſhall offer up to Heaven our devout Thankſgivings for crowning, with ſo early and endearing a Pledge of Comfort, your Connubial Felicity.

And fortunate indeed we ſhall eſteem ourſelves, if, amidſt the Throng of univerſal Congratulations upon this National as well as Domeſtick Bleſſing, our humble Mite, not unobſerved by your Majeſty, ſhould happen to be honoured with a gracious Regard.
